

The Service Edge

What do we mean by good service?

Apollo responds promptly to all orders with the right people.

Apollo employees are responsible and punctual.

Our job is not over once we place someone at a company: we make sure that our employee is comfortable and that his/her needs are satisfied completely. We know that this relieves our client of a potential burden. It is simply a matter of fact that a happy employee will do a better job for you.

Apollo employees are replaced immediately if they are unsatisfactory to our client for any reason.

Apollo takes the time to work with our clients to fully understand their company and their needs.
